B.C. WILDLIFE FEDERATION ANNOUNCES FOUR BIG WINNERS

The winning ticket for the third annual BCWF Dream Adventure Lottery, drawn at 2 pm on March 7, 2010 in Abbotsford at the BC Hunting show, bore the name of Ken Jacques of Duncan.

Ken has a choice between two very special Dream Adventures: Either a fishing trip for two people with Langara Fishing Adventures, including airfare from Vancouver, accommodation, meals and car rental, worth over $10,000 OR a deer hunting trip to northern Saskatchewan for one person, including a shoulder mount of the deer, airfare and accommodations from Jim Shockey. What a tough choice!

Roland Schmidt from Vancouver was the owner of the second ticket drawn. He will be taking a trip for two to Las Vegas including airfare and accommodations.

The third ticket drawn, for a shopping spree at Italian Sporting Goods, had the name of Chris Vandekertave from Surrey who will be heading in to see Victor at ISG in the very near future.

The fourth and final prize drawn was for a shopping spree at Chilliwack Dart and Tackle, Jim Helsden from Langley a long time volunteer and supporter of BCWF will be heading in to see Gary in Chilliwack to collect his prize.

Another important draw, at the end of the BC Hunting show was BCWF Membership draw for a GPS. Happy winner and new member is Doug Gotto of Delta. Welcome aboard Doug.

The BCWF extends hearty congratulations to our winners and would like to thank all of our ticket buyers and prize sponsors who actively support BC Wildlife Federation. All proceeds of these draws go to clubs across the province for conservation projects helping us to make a difference for fish and wildlife in BC.

The BC Wildlife Federation is the largest and oldest, province-wide, voluntary and locally funded conservation organization in British Columbia. BCWF is the voice of conservation-committed hunters and anglers in the province, consisting of 37,000 members and 130 clubs, active throughout British Columbia.
